

Karlson Tourism

Note to Editors:

Karlson Tourism, founded in 1997, is one of the longest running tour operators in the Russian tourism market. Its years of experience, along with the support of one of the most successful Russian corporations, guarantee Karlson Tourism's commitment to quality. The company offers a full range of tour services, including on-line booking, airline reservations, visa-support, rental of cars, aircraft and yachts, along with other services for its clients and partners.

Karlson Tourism is a member of the Russian and international tourism associations, RATA and IATA, and is a partner with respected international travel companies Gulliver's Travel Associates, KUONI Travel Ltd., TRAVCO Ltd., TOURICO Holidays, Miki, Dertour and Tui. These partnerships enable the company to offer its clients the best hotels and services to meet their needs.
